

LYNN & JOSEPHINE HOLSINGER SCHOLARSHIP

About the Donors

Lynn Holsinger taught mathematics to seventh and eighth grades at Auburn Junior High School. His wife, Josephine, taught first and second grades at DeSoto Elementary School, formerly located at DeSoto Park in east Auburn. Their desire was to see students follow in their footsteps and become teachers.

Eligibility Criteria

This scholarship is a renewable award to a graduating senior from DeKalb High School (DeKalb County, Indiana) studying education.

Applicant must also:

- Have a grade point average of 6.0 (C+) or higher
- Enroll in, or accepted to, an accredited four-year college degree program full-time and remain enrolled to continue to receive future payments

If the recipient is put on academic probation by their college or university, continuation of the scholarship is at the discretion of the DeKalb County Community Foundation. Recipients who decide to change their career path during the four-year program may forfeit the scholarship.

Scholarship Eligibility Policy

In order to assure the public that DeKalb County Community Foundation maintains impartiality when awarding educational scholarships, the following individuals and their relatives* are not considered eligible for scholarships provided by the foundation:

- Foundation Directors or Officers
- Foundation Employees
- Foundation Scholarship Committee members
- Foundation Scholarship Sub-Committee members
- High school staff members directly involved in the selection process

For a Director, Officer, Employee, Scholarship Committee member or Scholarship Sub-Committee member, this restriction applies for the year scholarships are awarded and for two years after he/she is no longer connected with the foundation in a volunteer or paid position. For a high school staff member directly involved with the selection process, this restriction applies only for the year the scholarships are awarded.

*Relatives are defined as follows: Spouse, lineal descendents (children, grandchildren, great grandchildren whether by whole or half blood, step-children, step-grandchildren, step-great grandchildren) and their spouses, brothers and sisters (whether by whole or half blood) and their spouses, as well as ancestors. Other relatives (i.e. nephew, niece, etc.) are eligible to receive scholarships provided by the foundation. Approved by the DeKalb County Community Foundation Board of Directors May 19, 2005.
